

Bedtime Story For the Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE EGG GAME.
By HOWARD R. GARIS.

"O H, Uncle Wiggly, do you know how to play it?" asked Susie Littlefield, the rabbit girl, as she came bounding and bounding into the hollow stump bungalow of the rabbit gentleman one day. "It's just fine!"

"What the weather?" asked the bunny, as he looked out of the window near which he was sitting reading his paper.

"Oh! the weather is all right," spoke Susie with a laugh. "But I was speaking about a game."

"What sort of a game?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "Do you mean tag or croquet?"

"Neither one," replied Susie. "I mean the egg game. Listen."

Then from somewhere out in the woods near the hollow stump bungalow came a call:

"Who's got the yegg? Who's got a yegg?"

"My goodness!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "That is a funny question. What does it mean?"

"Listen again," said Susie.

Like an Open Book For Young Mothers!

Most women look upon becoming a mother, for the first time, as something full of unknown mysteries; a agony and pain; a time of distressing days and months. These are misguided conclusions. "Mother's Friend," used daily before confinement, will prove its great value as an ally to those distressing pains and assist nature in doing its work with ease and comfort. Get "Mother's Friend" at your drugist.

The young mother should become acquainted with the information contained in a book on Motherhood that will be mailed free to all who write Address

BY a mere hair's breadth, a thrilling movie stunt by the players in "The Crimson Stain Mystery" was prevented from becoming a tragedy the other day. It was the good right arm of Eugene Strong, the juvenile, that saved the day, and to that same right arm Eugene Strong and Ethel Grandin owe their lives.

Director T. Hayes Hunter and the company were taking the climax of the 11th episode of the serial. The scene was the Harlem river and a bridge spanning it. Ethel Grandin was kidnapped by the Crimson Stain gang and taken in a launch up the river to their hang-out. Eugene Strong gave pursuit and conceived the idea of lowering himself by a rope from the bridge to the river below. When the launch reached him, he was to grasp Ethel Grandin in his arms and be hauled up by his friends on the bridge.

The stunt was done successfully. But just as Eugene Strong and Ethel Grandin were about to be pulled over the railing of the bridge the rope broke and they dropped. With quick presence of mind, Mr. Strong threw out his right arm and grasped the first thing that came within reach—a support of the bridge.

Under this planetary government sports should flourish. Victory is given to strength rather than to resourcefulness and technical attainment.

With the new year there will be a great growth of the democratic spirit and increase of popularity for community undertakings of every sort.

KID BROAD GETS REALISTIC

In the Metro-Quintessence studies the other day "Kid" Broad, former featherweight celebrity, was going through a boxing scene with Andy Thompson for the serial in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are the stars. "You've got to get more action into this," said Thompson. "Now, Andy, you want the Kid just like John L. Sullivan used to do. You swear at the Kid and keep slapping your thigh with one hand and yelling and cursing with the other. Come on, you coward. Come on and fight!"

Andy did. He yelled as if he meant it, and he kept creeping up toward Broad, not observing a wicked gleam in the former fighter's eye. "Why don't you fight?" Featherweight was a good name for you. "Then—Biff. Out with the Kid's left and down topped Andy. When he came back from 'dreamland' Broad was leaning over him.

"Honest, didn't mean it, Andy," he said. "You talked like the fight was on the square and I forgot where I was and my left ran away from me."

Raspberry Jam Turnovers.

THESE turnovers are a tempting little dessert. Make some short paste, roll it out to the thickness of about a quarter of an inch, and cut it out in pieces of a circular form. Put some raspberry jam on half of the paste over. Press the edges together, ornament them, and brush the turnovers over with the white of an egg; sprinkle over sifted sugar, and bake on pans in a quick oven for about 20 minutes. Dried fruit may be boiled down with a little sugar, and then enclosed in the crust, or fresh fruit of any kind may be substituted for raspberry jam.

Short Paste—Take two cups of flour, one-half cup of butter (or part butter and part lard), mix a pinch of salt with the flour, and make it into a stiff paste with cold water. The paste should be as soft as possible to the consistency of the fat. Roll the paste out to about the size of a large meat plate, press with the hand into a ball, using a very little flour. Put the fat into the paste and press it out to about half the size of the paste. Then wrap the fat up in the paste, and put it away in a cool place for about an hour; then roll it out and use.—(Tomorrow—Egyptian Salad.)

14 YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Herald of This Date, 1902.

EL PASO citizens are beginning to talk about the proposition of paving some of the leading business streets of the city. It is conceded that El Paso should by all means have all or parts of El Paso street, Mills street, Pioneer Plaza, San Antonio street and Oregon paved, these portions being directly in the business part of the city and lined with houses.

The finance committee of the carnival association will start tomorrow to collect subscriptions.

Mrs. K. Thompson returned yesterday from Victoria, Texas, where she has been spending the summer.

Judge and Mrs. T. S. Maxey left yesterday for San Antonio, after a pleasant visit of three weeks in the city.

The "Merry Wives" were entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Burges. Mrs. Eagan and Mrs. W. D. Howe won the prize.

The theft of bicycles is becoming a very common practice in the city, and never a day passes but there is a report or two of the theft of a wheel.

Mrs. J. P. Ramsey entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Bateman and Miss Mark, the guest of Mrs. J. H. McKinnell.

A. P. Coles, W. W. Turney and Frank and Otis Coles have recently purchased a lease of 100 sections of land south of El Paso. Mr. Coles' ranch and have stocked the place with 350 head of fine cattle.

The El Paso Gun club is arranging with Miss Emma Villars at her home on North Oregon street. Among those present were: Mrs. P. C. Earle, Mrs. H. Whitmer, Mrs. L. M. Turner, Mrs. W. B. Latta, Mrs. E. Blumenthal, Mrs. E. K. Beach and Mrs. H. W. Moore.

The County Sunday school convention opened Friday evening, and the attendance was good. The program yesterday was participated in by J. H. Harper, Rev. D. L. Collie, J. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Robert S. Turner, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Emma V. Newman, Mrs. E. C. Beach, Rev. Volney Johnson, Mrs. E. K. Robertson, Mr. Collins and others.

El Paso should by all means have all to give a shoot during the midwinter carnival next January, and Messrs. W. H. Shuler, Mr. Kracker, A. E. McKinnell, W. J. Hand, W. W. Bridges and W. F. Payne have been appointed a committee to solicit advertisements for the official program, while Messrs. R. Y. Orndorff, E. W. Mead, J. H. Enlow, P. Coles, T. H. Olsenhausen, W. M. Peticolas and P. H. Coles have been named to arrange for prizes for the shooting.

FLOWERS.

Some people never know the difference between right and wrong till they find out which pays best.—Prof. Simp.

SIMON SIMONS, the closest man in Pittsburgh, was downright worried.

That young sport, Charley Bang, was sending presents to Lucia Duds, and Simons knew that it was high time for him to go and do likewise.

While he was standing looking in the window of Hoffhooster's florist shop, wondering how many assorted flowers he could buy for about 15 cents, Charley Bang roared inside. Simon Bangs waited till he came out again, and then went in and asked, "Some flowers were to be ordered for Miss Duds, Lane street and Street lane, today. Have they been ordered yet?"

Young man just now got through ordering of less replied old man Hoffhooster innocently. "Merican beauties, too, Beauties."

"Is there a pawnshop near here?" asked Simon Simons.

"Avenue street and Boulevard avenue," directed Hoffhooster.

Simon Simons rushed there, paid ten cents for the loan of a rusty revolver for half an hour, rushed back just in time to catch Hoffhooster's 12 year old messenger boy issuing forth with Charley Bang's flowers, followed him to the first dark corner, held him up with the rusty revolver while he opened the box and substituted his own card for Charley Bang's, and then rushed back with the revolver so as to be on time to get all his deposit back.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Dandruff, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yet, really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance. The beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as healthy as it can be. Dandruff has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Advertisement.

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection," says Dr. J. W. Ray at New York. "Accordingly, he says, 'Physicians cannot even begin to treat a disease without knowing what causes it, and we must remember that headaches are to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause, but also to remove the headache, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of the trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose, anti-kamnia tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. The tablets every one can use, and they are comfortable and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women.'"

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "A-K Tablets." And he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few anti-kamnia tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets. Anti-kamnia tablets at all druggists.

To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs From Face

(Beauty Notes.)

Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delicate paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered talcum. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed to remove the remaining delatene. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution should be used to be certain that it is delatene you buy.—Adv.
